

Grammar Assessment. Module 1 Week 5

Write I if the underlined clause is an independent clause.

Write D if the underlined clause is a dependent clause.

Subordinating Conjunctions

"AAAWWUBBIS"

"after, although, as, when, while, until, because, before, if, since"

1. Since I last wrote, we have made big plans.

2. After school gets out, Ted can take us camping.

3. We will go to the park because we have worked hard. _____
4. If the weather is nice, we can climb a mountain.

5. I will not go to school until I feel better.

6. Before we go, we need to decide about the food.

7. The window was broken when got home. _____
8. We lit a fire after we found a campsite. _____

9. Although it's a short trip, I will pack my iPad.

10. I have felt happy since I planned this trip.
