

Read the story below. Cut-out the sentence strips below and put them in order to show how they happened in the story.

Sally Smith is starting a new school this year. This morning she took her time getting ready. She picked out her favorite outfit. She combed her hair and put on her best jewelry. Sally ate toast with cinnamon and sugar for breakfast. Mom told Sally to pack her backpack with her new school supplies. Sally could not wait to use her new markers. Dad drove her to school. Sally loved her teacher and made new friends.

1st

2nd

3rd

4th

5th

©Teacher's Take-Out

Sally ate toast.

She packed her backpack.

She picked out an outfit to wear.

Sally made new friends.

She put on her best jewelry.