Sam's holiday

Last month Emma and her family moved from a small house with a garden in a village to a big flat in a town. Her parents both had jobs in the town and wanted to live near their work. They all thought it was a good idea to move and Emma had lots of fun painting her new bedroom. She chose some interesting colours – red, pink and purple! Her mother said, “I don’t think I could sleep in that room. It looks terrible!”

There was one big problem when they moved. They lost their pet cat Sam. For the first two weeks the cat stayed in the new apartment and never went outside. Then one Tuesday evening at about six o’clock one of Emma’s friends came to the flat. Emma opened the door. The cat slowly walked out and then quickly ran down the stairs. Emma shouted, “Where are you going, Sam? Stop! Sam didn’t stop and she even started to run faster.

The cat stayed away for nearly ten days and then one evening, at about nine o’clock, Emma heard a sound at the front door. When she opened the door, she saw the cat sitting there happily. “Oh, I’m so happy that you came back, Sam!” said Emma. Then the cat got up and walked into the kitchen for a bowl of milk and something to eat. Emma gave Sam her favourite fish. Sam loved sardines with bread.
