

US Government

A _____ is a place where people decide if someone is guilty or innocent of committing a crime.

A _____ is a group of people who decide if someone is guilty or innocent if committing a crime.

If you _____ something you use it in a bad way.

If you have _____ you have the power to say what should happen.

If a country has a _____ its political system changes.

Rules which tell you what you should do are _____.

An _____ is a person who helps you to make a good decision.

The _____ of a country is the document that sets out the basic rules for the government.

The _____ of a government is its spending plans.

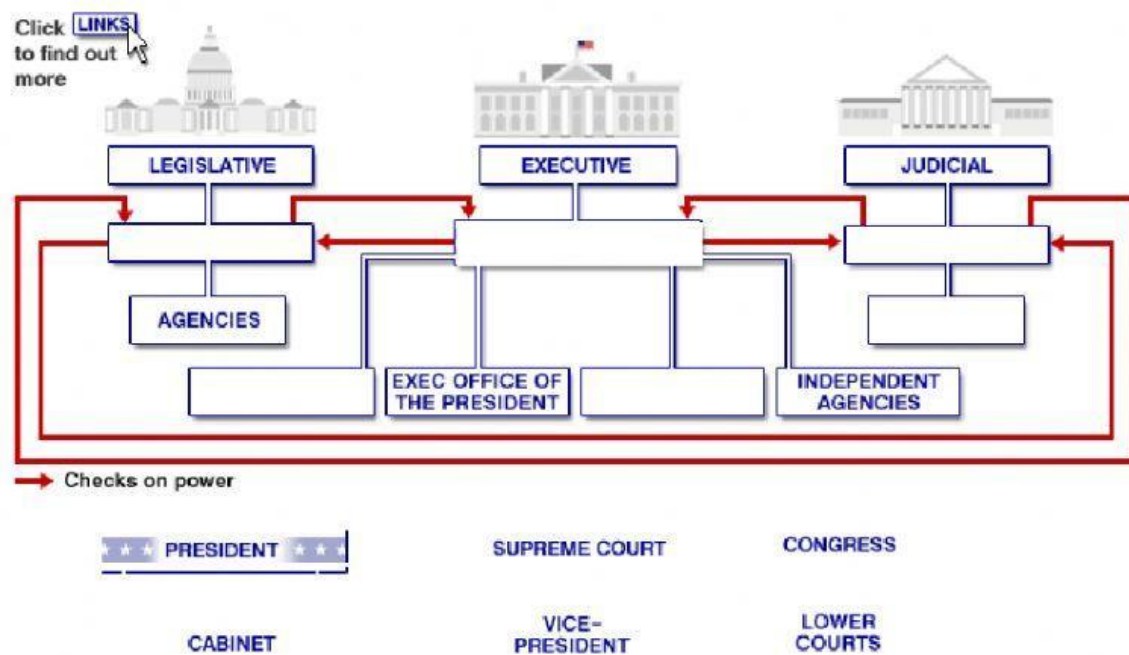

authority	revolution	abuse
constitution	guidelines	advisor
budget	court	jury

Watch the video and answer question 1.

1) Why is the US government divided into three branches?

- a) so the President gets good advice
- b) to save money
- c) so that no one gets too powerful

Watch the video and put the labels in the right place on the diagram.

Watch the video again. Tick the sentences which are true.

After the American revolution the top politicians thought about making someone the King of America.	☐
The House of Representatives is also called the U.S. Congress.	☐
The executive branch of the U.S. government manages relationships with the governments of other countries.	☐
Supreme Court Judges are changed regularly.	☐