

UNIVERSAL HUMAN RIGHTS DECLARATION

inherent	oppression	atrocities	preamble	resort	rationale
-----------------	-------------------	-------------------	-----------------	---------------	------------------

- 1- See to the Treaty establishing the European Community, signed on 25 March 1957.
- 2- A recent estimate by the British House of Commons Select Committee put the casualty figures as high as 300 000, with 10 000 people dying each month from disease, starvation and, and two million people homeless and displaced, destabilizing neighboring Chad.
- 3- But there is also another powerful for doing so: treating fairly those who are poorer and less powerful is the morally right thing to do.
- 4- Seen in this way, sovereignty is an human attribute that cannot be surrendered or taken away.
- 5- The detention and prosecution of children, including for acts committed while associated with armed groups, should at all times remain a measure of last
- 6- Laws must not be used as a means of — as they once were in South Africa.

TOWARDS A TRUE REFUGE

Affluent	enhancement	stripped of	destitute	plunder	render	abiding confine	uphold	dissipate	perpetuate	abundance	Dissension	condone

- 7- I will use the corruption at the heart of his kingdom, and such of gold will buy me into the King's chambers... even to the King himself.
- 8- about the political future resulted in four of the five islands advocating for separation from the Netherlands Antilles.
- 9- The aims of the global fight against malaria are not only to reduce the burden of malaria in endemic areas, but also to reduce and the geographical extent of malaria-endemic areas in the world.
- 10- However, any restriction of the accused's wish to defend himself must have an objective and sufficiently serious purpose and not go beyond what is necessary to the interests of justice.
- 11- This order, without any mark of courtesy, will be respected to contribute to doubts, since I understand you are dedicated opponents of doubts.
- 12- Preventing and removing the fundamental causes of the asymmetries and inequalities between developed and developing countries and populations and the structural obstacles and factors that generate and poverty worldwide.
- 13- Nobody could possibly attacking an emergency crew under any circumstances.
- 14- countries must agree to alleviate the debt of poor countries, to offer them improved market access and to increase official development assistance.
- 15- Performance is not a new topic: in many ways, it is one of the oldest topics in sport.

16- Li Chang was sentenced to 18 years' imprisonment and his political rights for 5 years;

17- Financially, Mantell offered to sell the entire collection to the British Museum in 1838 for £5,000, accepting the counter-offer of £4,000.

18- Both sides in this conflict avoided a potentially disastrous direct confrontation, instead focusing on raids in order to and devastate their opponent's territory.

19- A translator is obliged to all the ideas of an author to the audience.

20- The Board contributes to the protection of the community by facilitating the timely integration of offenders as law-..... citizens.