

Relative Clauses

A. Choose the correct item:

1. Nick is the boy who/which gave me the necklace.
2. Brighton is the place where/when I studied.
3. July is the month which/when I usually go on holiday.
4. My best friend, who/whose hobby is poetry, has just published her first collection.
5. Should I ask my university professor why/whose I failed his course?
6. Martin Luther King, that/who was a social rights activist, dedicated his life to his cause.
7. This is the first time who/that we go paragliding.
8. With who/whom are you going to the movies?
9. The laptop which/who I bought last week got infected by malware.
10. I can't figure out why/when he's being so argumentative.
11. Students who/which engage in inappropriate behavior will be punished.
12. Berlin is the city where/which I'm going to move.

2. Join the sentences as in the example:

This is the old lady. I helped her cross the street.

e.g. This is the old lady that I helped cross the street.

1. This is my elder brother. He works as a plumber.

.....

2. That was the hotel. I stayed there for six days.

.....

3. Jackson is my colleague. His wife was an actress.

.....

4. October is the month. We dress up for Halloween then.

.....

5. Aunt Lucy fixed the mobile phone. I had dropped it in water.

.....

