STORY WRITING

He woke up from what seemed to be the longest sleep he had ever had. His muscles were aching badly from the events of the previous day. He stood up gingerly and tried to take a good look at his surroundings.

Write a continuation for the story above. Here are some ideas for you:

1. What did he see when he looked around? Use expanded noun phrases to describe what he saw.
2. Why were his muscles aching?
3. What might have happened the previous day to cause his muscle aches?
4. Who is he and what is his name?
5. What does he look like? Use expanded noun phrases to describe his appearance.
6. What happened next?
7. Did he meet some people or animals? Describe them.
8. What dialogue took place between them? Use Direct Speech to show what the characters said.
9. Was there any problem or conflict?
10. How was the conflict resolved?
