

Jodie Walker's book:

1 Look at the story. Think and predict.

Where is Sam's mission?

In the cinema.

In the museum.

What is the problem?

A dinosaur.

A monster.

Secret Spy Sam: Dinosaur Mission

1 Sam is a school boy. After school, he does his homework. Then, he watches TV.

Scientists do amazing things with DNA. One day, we can have real dinosaurs again.

Wow!

2 Sam is also a secret spy!

It's my spy watch. I've got a new mission.

3 Tom shows Sam the security videos.

That's strange. The dinosaur doesn't go to the restaurant to find food. Real dinosaurs like food. Oh - and what's that, on its ear?

I don't know. It looks like an antenna!

4 Sam and Tom look out of the window.

Everybody is asleep.

Not everybody. My night vision glasses help me see inside.

Phone the police. Tell them to go to this address. It's 32 Park Road ...

5 Find the guard at the museum.

Does he want my help?

Yes, he does. There's something dangerous in the museum.

I'm on my way.

6 Sam is in the museum. He's wearing his night vision glasses.

Sam, come here! I'm Tom, the museum's night guard!

What's dangerous? A dinosaur! It's alive!

7 Spy Samantha, we meet again.

Oh! It's a model dinosaur.

Maybe one day we can have real dinosaurs, but not today!

8 Sam is in bed.

Here's your book about dinosaurs, Sam.

Er. No thanks, Mum. No more dinosaurs tonight!
