

1 Complete the stories with the crime verbs.

arrested broke into chased robbed

Thieves in Delaware ¹ robbed a jewelry store last night. They ² broke into the store at 1 a.m. A security guard ³ chased them, but they escaped on motorcycles. Police ⁴ arrested one of the thieves this morning, but they're still looking for the other three.

are investigating didn't catch stole

Police ¹ are investigating a crime scene at a sneaker store in Arkansas. Two men walked into the store yesterday at 7:20 p.m. and ² stole twelve boxes of expensive sneakers. Outside the store, the thieves took off their old sneakers and put on some new ones! Then they ran away. The security guard ³ didn't catch them. The police are looking for two men with big feet – size 14!

2 Correct the mistakes in the computing phrases.

- On public computers, you should always log out of information. websites
- You should think before you click on passwords in e-mails.
- I want to keep my personal information safe, so I use about six different links.
- You should be careful about how you share personal software.

1 Look at the picture for 30 seconds. Then cover it and answer questions 1–6.

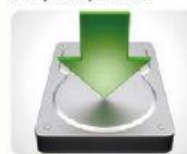

- How many people were committing crimes? four
- What was the dog stealing?
- Who was chasing the dog?
- Was the police officer arresting a man or a woman?
- What was the name of the store?
- What color was the car that the man was breaking into?

2 Complete the advice on the poster. Then choose always or never.click information install links ~~out~~ passwords share software use websites

STAY SAFE ONLINE

- Always / Never log out of websites after you finish using them.
- Always / Never share personal information with people you don't know.
- Always / Never click on links in unusual e-mails.
- Always / Never install software on your computers.
- Always / Never use passwords for websites.

3 Choose the correct words to complete the computer phrases.

- install / log out of antivirus software

- share / use different passwords

- install / click on a link

- log out of / click on a website

Melissa Jane Smith

It's my birthday! 15 today! |

Post

- install / share personal information