6. Politics

- A. The central feature of the Kuskovo estate, the Palace with its splendid forecourt and magnificent formal garden, is the best-preserved part of the estate. The forecourt is combination of the designing principles of the old boyar estate and the eighteenth-century country residence. The irregular arrangement of the buildings gives the forecourt a picturesque quality.
- B. Seeing a dog sticking its head out the car window enjoying the sights and smells on a sunny day is super cute, but is it safe? Increasingly, many are saying it's not. Experts say that in a car with brakes being applied while driving 35 miles per hour, even a small dog can create a force the equivalent of 2,700-pound baby elephant! Bad for your dog ... and could be bad for you too.
- C. In an exciting game, Barca was up 5-1 with just moments left - so close, but they'd need one more for the miracle win. Then, in stoppage time (after regulation time is done and where time lost during the game is made up) ... with seconds left, Barca passed it to substitute player, Sergi Roberto, who placed a perfectly timed foot on the ball ... and scored!
- D. In the presidential elections in France a win for Marine Le Pen would have resulted in a very different vision. Ms. Le Pen had wanted a Frexit, France's exit from the European Union (similar to Brexit, Britain's recent exit from European Union membership). During the campaign, her views were often compared to President Trump's.
- E. The rain overwhelmed rivers and streams causing "flash floods" as the banks couldn't absorb or contain the water. The force of the rushing waters uprooted homes and cars as it went by, snapped roads and bridges in half, and breached dams meant to contain the water. Many towns can be reached now only by helicopters.

Задание 19. (in class)

Imagine that you are preparing a project with your friend. You have found some interesting material or the presentation and you want to read this text to your friend.

You have 1.5 minutes to read the text silently, then be ready to read it out aloud.

You will not have more than 1.5 minutes to read it.

Only seven prisoners were freed by the storming of the Bastille. In France, 14 July, Bastille Day, is a national holiday and a glorious national symbol. From the rousing paintings of the scene, you might think hundreds of proud revolutionaries flooded into the streets waving tricolours. In fact, only just over half a dozen people were being held at the time of the siege.

One hundred lives were lost in the attack, including that of the governor, whose head was carried through Paris on a pike. Soldiers invalided out of regular service – and conditions were fairly comfortable for most inmates, with relaxed visiting hours and furnished lodgings. The painter Jean Fragonard's sketch of visiting day in 1785 shows fashionable ladies promenading around the courtyard with the prisoners, who were given a generous spending allowance, plenty of tobacco and alcohol, and were allowed to keep pets.
