

KING JOHN, MAGNA CARTA, KING HENRY III AND KING EDWARD I QUIZ

A. REWRITE THE DIFFERENT KINGS IN ORDER: HENRY III, EDWARD I, RICHARD I, JOHN I

.....

B. WRITE THE CORRESPONDING NAME OF THE KING NEXT TO EACH CHARACTERISTIC OR FACT:

1. He was greedy and unfair.....
2. He took part in the 3rd crusade.....
3. He was a brave and courageous soldier.....
4. He spent time with foreign friends and became involved in expensive wars.....
5. He had problems with the nobles, the church and the French.....
6. He had to rule temporarily with the help of two regents.....
7. He brought together the 1st real parliament.....
8. He had no sons or daughters.....
9. He stole the Stone of Destiny.....
10. He repeatedly demanded more taxes.....

C. COMPLETE THESE STATEMENTS ABOUT MAGNA CARTA

Magna Carta was very important because...

1. It required the to follow the established rather than ruling according to his desires.
2. It established the right of The authorities have to that they have just cause to a person.
3. It guaranteed individualrights: the right toand to a fair The law provided protection from punishments such as, seizure ofor without a trial.

D. WRITE T (TRUE) OR F (FALSE). Correct the mistaken statements

1. King John signed Magna Carta unwillingly.
-

2. Simon de Montfort was one of the regents that ruled England temporarily.
-

3. The House of Lords and The House of Commons were part of Simon de Montfort's Parliament.

4. The House of Commons was formed by the king, wealthy freemen and merchants.

5. The beginning of the idea that there should be no taxation without representation was present in Edward's ruling period.

6. The House of Lords was formed by the heirs of the king.

7. Simon de Montfort commanded each shire to send two representatives to his parliament.

8. Both the English and the Scottish loved King Edward I.

