Coloca el nombre de cada región dónde corresponde.

Tehuacán

Huauchinango

The map shows the seven regions of the State of Puebla, each with a number and a color: Region I (pink), Region II (yellow), Region III (dark red), Region IV (green), Region V (light yellow), Region VI (orange), and Region VII (dark green). Blue lines connect the regions to their corresponding dashed boxes for labeling. The boxes are arranged as follows: one at the top left (for Tehuacán), one at the top right (for Huauchinango), one to the left of Region I, one to the right of Region II, one to the left of Region IV, one to the right of Region III, one to the left of Region VI, and one to the right of Region VII. At the bottom, there are three boxes for San Pedro Cholula, Izúcar de Matamoros, and Ciudad Serdán, and two boxes for Puebla and Teziutlán.
