

VOCABULARY

1. LISTEN AND READ the article from a website about EXPRESSIONS used in every day ENGLISH taken from the book ALICE IN WONDERLAND.

<https://learningenglish.voanews.com/a/3240888.html>

ALICE IN WONDERLAND

2. MATCH the expressions to the meaning

- A. chasing the white rabbit
- B. following the white rabbit
- C. fall down the rabbit hole
- D. Go down the rabbit hole
- E. mad as a Hatter
- F. someone smiles like the Cheshire Cat
- G. a Queen of Hearts

- 1. an aggressive woman who tries to dominate everything and everyone around her.
- 2. someone who is completely crazy and out of his/her mind.
- 3. finding yourself in the middle of an extraordinary situation which changes your life.
- 4. A person who is sneaky, cunning, mischievous, unpredictable and mysterious.
- 5. get interested in something to the point of distraction and lose all track of time.
- 6. someone who gets into a strange state of mind or situation probably chaotic or difficult
- 7. to chase the impossible, a fantasy, a dream

3. COMPLETE THE SENTENCES with the expressions of above. There is one you don't need to use.

- a. My cousin is always telling everyone what to do. She is like _____
- b. He decided to quit his job and travel the world. I think he got _____
- c. That little child is always planning something sneaky and naughty. Look he _____
- d. I started watching funny bloopers video. I _____ and spent hours sitting in front of the TV
- e. I decided to go on an exotic safari trip. I _____ and this experience changed my life.
- f. Owning your own business is a huge responsibility that not everyone is prepared for. But we think we are ready to _____

