

Name: _____

October 22nd, 2020

Pick a word from the box to match each clue.
Write the word on the line.

certainly either great laugh
second worst you're

1. giggle

2. surely

3. one or the other

4. most awful

5. follows the first

6. very important

7. you are

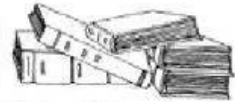

Home Activity Your child learned to read the high-frequency words certainly, either, great, laugh, second, worst, and you're. Write sentences using each of these words, but leave blanks for the words. Have your child use the high-frequency words to complete the sentences.

Read the story.

Write in the correct words from the box to finish the sentences.

certainly either great laugh
second worst you're

My sister is learning to be a lawyer. I think she will be a _____ lawyer. She is always reading or writing. She _____ has to read a lot of books.

One time I noticed that she dropped a book. Then she dropped a _____ book. It wasn't her fault. She says the _____ part of learning to be a lawyer is that the books are so heavy.

Today I left a picture on her desk. It showed her dropping books.

"Now, who drew this?" she asked. I was honest. I told her that I did it.

"Joe, _____ a funny boy," she said to me. "And your picture made me _____."

Home Activity Your child used high-frequency words learned this week to complete sentences in a story. Have your child write about a favorite book. Encourage your child to use some of these high-frequency words.