Dear Mark,

I am applying for the post of camp leader, which I saw advertised somewhere recently.
Here's my CV.

I reckon I have just about everything needed for this job. I have worked loads with kids, doing all kinds of stuff.
They generally do what I tell them,
and we manage to have a great time together.
Having studied psychology and education at university,
I know quite a bit about the behavior of kids.

I am really into sport, and have lots of experience of organizing training events. I am a very practical person, easy-going, and it's no problem for me to make friends. I have been all over the place, and enjoy meeting new people.

I can't wait to hear from you.
Best wishes
Kate Henderson
