

Name: _____

Date: _____

Make Your Own Inferences 2

Use each sentence below to make a reasonable inference.

| Sentence                                                   | Your Inference                         |
|------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| Example:Sarah kept yawning during breakfast.           | Sarah didn't get a good night's sleep. |
| 1. Ryan's clothes were soaking wet.                        |                                        |
| 2. Becca apologized to Jayme.                              |                                        |
| 3. Tien giggled as she watched the movie.                  |                                        |
| 4. A baseball rolled on the floor under the broken window. |                                        |
| 5. Tomas shivered in his seat.                             |                                        |