An explanation of natural disasters

The most frightening experiences

Great holidays!

Last month, there was a hurricane in my town. The winds were very strong. A tree fell down on our car and it was badly damaged. My mother lost consciousness and I was badly hurt.
Samantha, Dominican Republic

We were staying at a hotel near the beach when we heard a noise. It was a tsunami! We were safe but there was a big flood in the town and a lot of people lost their homes. Harry, USA

We were skiing in the mountains and suddenly, there was an avalanche. We had a lucky escape but the snow blocked our way. We got lost and it got dark. Jean, France

Last year, there was a big flood in my city and the water covered the streets. My family and I took shelter in a community centre because our house was badly damaged.
Mark, Germany

During the earthquake last week, all the houses and buildings were shaking. Some of them collapsed. Others were badly damaged. I ran to take shelter but I fell and broke a leg. Luckily, I recovered quickly. Mateo, Chile

POST-READING

4. a) Read this anecdote and choose the correct option in each case.

Hi, Emma!

Something really strange happened to me today. I was walking / walked home from school when lots of apples started / were starting falling out of the sky. It was raining / rained apples at that moment! Where did they come from? I went home and told my mum and brother but they didn't believe me. But that evening, my mum and dad were watching / watched the news on TV when they heard / were hearing the story. Nobody knew why the apples fell out of the sky but they did!

See you soon,

Tom.

b) What do you think: do you believe in Tom's story? Why? Why not?

5. Read this anecdote and choose the best connector: when or while.

Hi, Ingrid!

We had lots of adventures on our holiday. While / when we were staying at a campsite near a river, we had a terrible experience. There was a flood while / when we were sleeping. When / while we woke up, we were wet. So, my father took everything out from the floor. But when / while my father was doing this, the firefighters were coming to help us. They saved our holidays!

Hope you're having a good summer!

Jack.
