

AGREEMENT

1. No country is immune to the threat of counterfeit drugs which kill a large number of patients every day.
A B C D
2. Food as tonic refers to using food to treat individual who have a general weakness, but no specific disease diagnosis.
A B C D
3. Only one of all the states in the United States are larger than Texas.
A B C D
4. If both the President and Vice-president should be simultaneously incapacitated, it is the speaker of the house of Representatives which is next in line.
A B C D
5. The first electric lamp had two carbon rods from which vapor serve to conduct the current across the gap.
A B C D
6. A thunderhead, dense clouds that rise high into the sky in the huge columns, produce hail, rain, or snow.
A B C D
7. Never before has so many people in the United States been interested in soccer.
A B C D
8. Almost all books have a few errors in them in spite of the care taken to check its proof pages before the final printing.
A B C D
9. Our biggest and most serious problem are that the supplies are not readily available.
A B C D
10. Awards annually given to the company is displayed in the lobby.
A B C D
11. All of the bad news about the new contract have finally been confirmed.
A B C D
12. Although isolated pockets of hunger still remain, the World Bank nowadays gives some African countries money to sustain its self-sufficiency in food production.
A B C D
13. There is separate sources of hazard in the process of supplying energy by nuclear power
A B C D
14. All nuclear power stations produces wastes that in most cases will remain radioactive for thousands of years.
A B C D
15. Among the various effects of air pollution, climatic changes are slow, the deterioration of health is insidious, and the damage to plants, or materials seem remote to those not directly involved.
A B C D
- 16 To maintain the flow of energy and nutrients through the system, Ecosystems have a structure which consist of producers, consumers, and decomposers.
A B C D