

CONNECTORS OF PURPOSE: TO, IN ORDER TO, SO THAT

- In order to and to are usually followed by the infinitive form of the verb.

- I work in order to earn some money

- I work to earn some money

- So that is normally followed by a noun or pronoun.

- I work so that I earn some money

1. Choose the correct connector of purpose

- a) The robbers wore masks so that / to hide their faces
- b) We did what the robber said so that / in order to we wouldn't get hurt.
- c) The witness went to the police station in order to / so that help the police.
- d) The artist asked us questions to / so that he could draw the suspect
- e) The policeman studied the crime scene in order to / so that understand what had happened.
- f) In order to / so that get to the theatre on time, we should leave now.
- g) So / In order to get a better price, Jack bought the computer online.
- h) The museum was closed to / so that the police could look for evidence related to the theft.
- i) They are installing cameras in order to / so that improve security.
- j) The guard in the shop usually looks in people's bags so that / to make sure they haven't been shoplifted.

2. Complete the sentences with a suitable connector of purpose (so that / in order to / to). There may be more than one possible answer.

- a) We called the police immediately _____ report the robbery.
- b) Everyone was quiet _____ the armed man wouldn't get upset.
- c) They had planned everything carefully _____ there would be no mistakes.
- d) The robbers needed inside help _____ get the code for the safe.
- e) He locked us in the house _____ we couldn't follow him.
- f) The thieves had a fast car _____ get away quickly.
- g) We opened the safe so that / in order to we could take out the money.
- h) _____ call the police dial 999 on your phone.
- i) The robbers took our mobiles _____ we couldn't call the police.
- j) The police held a press conference _____ update everyone on the investigation.