Subject Susan's birthday party

Hi,

Hope you are OK. Susan's birthday is next Saturday and I was thinking of organizing a party for her. It could be a surprise party. We could invite our classmates and we can make something like a potluck dinner. That way we could save money. Can we make it in your house? You know that my apartment is so small so it is impossible to do it there. We can ask Liz and Pam to take their laptop and their speaker for the music. What time can we start?

Well, let me know if you agree or you can think of something different.

See you!

George
