The Land Down Under

Match the sentences.

Australia is	Canberra.
The capital city is	the native people of Australia.
Sydney is	often called Aussies.
The Aborigines are	Down Under.
People from Australia are	a continent and a country.
Nickname for Australia is	the biggest city.

Is the sentence about Australia, Croatia, or both?

Christmas is in summer.	It's in the southern hemisphere.
December is very cold.	Kangaroo is a symbol of the country.
It's in the northern hemisphere.	Schools starts in September.
School starts in January or February.	It is an island.
It is a country and a continent.

Match the words and the pictures.

an emu

a kangaroo

a duckbilled platypus

a dingo

liveworksheets.com

Label the animals in the Australian coat of arms.

an emu

a kangaroo

Complete the text about Australian animals.

leaves mammal howl sleeping bark beak

There are many strange and unique animals in Australia. One is a strange animal is called a duckbilled platypus. It is a _____, but it has a _____ and feet like a duck. Do you know what it is called in your language?

Koalas are called bears because they look like teddy bears, but they are not bears. They live in the trees and eat _____. They spend most of their lives _____.

They look like dogs, but are they dogs? They don't _____ like them. They _____ like wolves, but they are not wolves. They don't like men and they can't be pets. They are dingoes, the Australian wild dogs.

Write the plural of the following words.

a city _____

a wolf _____

a car _____

a woman _____

a mouse _____

a church _____

a fox _____

a child _____

a story _____

a leaf _____

a knife _____

a tooth _____

liveworksheets.com