Dedicated on October 28, 1886, the Statue of Liberty was a gift of friendship from the people of france. It is located on Liberty Island in New York harbor, the statue stands as a cymbal of freedom. Inside the statues base is a plaque engraved with the words, Give me you're tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free..." More than 120 tons of steel was used to build the statue, which were restored for it's 100th birthday celebration.
