

Phrasal verbs (travel)

I. Definitions:

- 1. to watch someone leave on a trip / accompany a person who is leaving to their point of departure:*
- 2. to take someone or something, esp. by car, to a particular place:*
- 3. to start a journey:*
- 4. to settle one's hotel bill before leaving:*
- 5. to register someone upon their arrival at a hotel or airport:*
- 6. If an aircraft, bird, or insect....., it leaves the ground and begins to fly:*
- 7. go somewhere to collect someone, typically in one's car:*

II. Gap-filling exercise: Put the phrasal verbs into the boxes (in the correct form).

- 1. We from New York on Friday for Egypt.*
- 2. My parents me at the airport.*
- 3. You must at least one hour before take-off*
- 4. After a three-day rest, the travellers again.*
- 5. I'm about to leave – can I you somewhere on my way home?*
- 6. Don't forget to hand in your room key when you*
- 7. The plane from the runway*
- 8. They came to the station to him*
- 9. Will you the children from school?*