MLK RAP SONG

It would take a  _____ of millions to hold us back.

_____ v. _____ opened some doors.

Back then they called all blacks  _____.

We kick it off of the top sort of like cerebrals.

 _____ isn't = _____, when in practice.

My school is a shack.

Mine is a  _____!

Do I have to sit in the back of the  _____? That's wackness.

Second class citizen on account of my  _____.

They say to change the world, you've got to take a stand.

_____ took a seat and changed the face of the land.

_____ had a plan that even if you want to change the world that don't mean you've got to  _____ another man.

Inspired by the people like Thoreau and  _____,

a pacifist in the war without an army.

'Cause they can't harm me, no matter how the end seems.

I wonder if Mr. King is still having  _____...

Let freedom ring...

I have a dream...

Let freedom ring...

This must become true...

So let freedom ring...

MLK had a dream, took it mainstream.
Civil Rights Bill, Voting Rights Acts, they passed.
Modern day Jesus, turning the other cheek,
some blacks like "dog, that's weak.
I'm not looking to get beat deep into next week,
my everyday life is police brutality."

Malcolm picked up X and dropped his slave name, radical change, "defense by any means."
Went on hajj to Mecca, said 'let God protect ya,
Whites and Blacks, yeah, we're in this together.'

But there are race riots, people are dying,
Warfare in Watts, tear gas, bullets are flying.
So JFK? He got assassinated.
MLK? He got assassinated.
Malcolm X? He got assassinated.
So it's up to us to keep that dream alive...

Let freedom ring... I have a dream... Let freedom ring...
This must become true... So let freedom ring...

Let us not seek to satisfy our thirst for freedom by drinking from the cup of bitterness and hatred.
