Halloween is originally_____

It was marked as the night between the real and the _____and_____world

For this _____and _____were gifted to make sure the coming year would be _____

Spirits of the _____were believed to come back to their world and sit on chairs _____or _____

The rituals which were thought to be _____were changed by the church into a 3-day festival

Trick or treating was first called _____and involved singing and reciting in exchange for _____ and good fortune

The deceased were thought to linger in _____until Nov 1st.

In Scotland _____were included into what is known today as the trick or treating.

It was the interest in the _____and _____that fascinated Victorians including games at parties instead of trick or treating

Children _____their collected treats changed the course of this tradition bringing it back and winning an award in _____

Overall, it is a time for the _____ and _____to be celebrated as well as sharing food.