Pupil's book

1 Listen and read. Who's Charlie's superhero?

Charlie: I love reading comics. Do you know that I write and draw my own comic stories?
 Emily: Really? How often do you write stories?
 Charlie: Once a week. I do them at art club on Thursday.
 Emily: Is there a superhero in your comic?
 Charlie: Yes. He's called Chocolate Charlie because he loves eating chocolate.
 Emily: How often does he eat chocolate?
 Charlie: He eats a bar of Choco-matic twice a day. It gives him special powers.
 Emily: Your hero isn't very healthy! How about Salad Sam?
 Charlie: OK. Good ideal!

3 Listen, follow and repeat. Ask and answer questions.

Learn Listen and read. Why does Charlie need help?

1 Charlie is working on his new comic.

Hi, Charlie. How's it going? Do you need some help?
 No, thank you. I can do this on my own.

2 Later, Charlie is still at the table.

Emily: Actually, I think I need some ideas. Please can you help me?
 Of course. What can I do?
 I've got a great story, but I can't think of a good costume for Salad Sam.

3 A week later ...

This comic is fantastic.
 I love Salad Sam's costume. Well done, Charlie!
 Thanks! The costume is Emily's idea.
 It's good to ask for help sometimes.

Tips for asking for help

- ✓ It's OK to ask others for help. Don't feel embarrassed.
- ✓ Working in groups is sometimes easier.
- ✓ Think about what help you need. What do you find difficult?

Can you think of two more tips?

Because...

He needs some new ideas

He doesn't like drawing.
