

1. What day is today?
2. When is your birthday?
3. What are you going to do on your birthday?
4. What are you going to do after school?
5. Are you going to Cinepolis on Saturday?
6. Is your dad going to go to Mexico City tomorrow?
7. How many people are there in your house?
8. Are there any bananas in your backpack?
9. Is there a lap top in your bedroom?
10. At what time do you go to bed?
11. How much milk do you drink ?
12. Do you have a cellphone?
13. Does your mom have a car?
14. How much is a bag of chips?
15. Which is the fastest, slowest and cheapest type of transportation?

PART II

COMMUNICATIVE TASK: Students will talk about what they are going to do.

Example: Next weekend I am going to wake up early, I am going to go to my English class then I am going to eat with my grandmother, after that I am going to call my friends. In the afternoon I am going to go to the movie theater, then I am going to go to a party, finally I am going to sleep in my cousins house.

Describe what are you going to do next weekend?

Wake up early.

Go to my English class.

Eat with my grandmother.

Call my friends.

Go to the movie theater.

Go to a party.

Sleep with my cousin.