

Distinguish compound sentences from complex sentences

Directions: Identify each sentence as compound or complex sentence.

1. Although the blooms are lovely, you may not pick them.

2. Some plants are useful, but others are poisonous.

3. Alexandra could not move very quickly because the brush was so thick.

4. The finally made it back to camp, and everyone had dinner.

5. Larry loved the rain, but Darla did not.

6. Although I have a map, I can't find this address.