

Writing Practice:

Summary of 'V is for Vampire'

- 1) Complete the black gaps (____) with the name of the characters:

George and Anne – Angie– Vera– Viktor– Don–
Mylene – Ed Valdemar

- 2) Choose the right option in the red gaps (____).
3) Complete the last paragraph with your opinion of the story.

'V is for Vampire' is a _____ story that takes place in New York, in a famous fashion house called _____. The owners of the company, _____, die at the beginning in a strange _____. In their will, they leave everything to their daughter _____ and their son _____. _____, a friend of the family and one of the directors of Ballantine's, thinks the fashion house needs new ideas, and they decide to employ new people.

The new image consultant, _____ Sarav is an interesting man from _____ who's always dressed in _____. He has exciting ideas, and suggests that _____ is presented as Ballantine's new _____. With Viktor, the company becomes very successful, but soon, problems occur.

One morning, Viktor comes to the office with a bandage on his _____ and says he thinks _____ hurt him in the parking garage. When _____ looks at the CCTV camera, he sees that Viktor hurt himself. When he goes to Angie's house to tell her what he's seen, he's killed in a mysterious _____.

After a successful fashion show in _____, while Vera and Angie travel to Bulgaria and stay in Viktor's house, two employees of Ballantine's, Sasha and _____ are killed in strange circumstances. This makes Vera suspect _____ is behind the murders and is actually a vampire, but she can't say anything because Viktor knows her secret: she once _____.

In the end, Viktor kills _____ because she knows too much. He hits her head against the floor and _____. He marries _____, and they travel to _____ for their honeymoon. Angie will soon become a _____ and they will join the Sarav family in Bulgaria.

Did you like the story? Why (not)? (Write at least three sentences) ✍

