My adventure

Last summer, I went on a school trip to the mountains. We learned about plants and animals. We didn't climb any mountains, but we had some free time. One afternoon, my friend Matt and I walked to a river. We had got a map and it was sunny. We crossed the river. Then, it rained. It rained a lot and it was impossible to cross the river again. It was 6 o'clock. Matt had a small plastic bottle of water. We didn't have any food. We were cold, hungry and scared. Then, at 8 o'clock, we heard a noise. It was our teachers! They were angry, but they were happy, too!
