

VOCABULARY

1. Suzanne has got a terrible cold and a _____.

- a. surgery b. runny nose c. treatment
2. What is the exact _____ of the missing ship?
a. medication b. development c. location
3. Try to relax and take a deep _____.
a. vitamin b. phobia c. breath
4. While driving in the countryside, we saw a _____ of sheep.
a. flock b. swarm c. team
5. When Beth realised that Ben was lying to her, she was _____.
a. convenient b. furious c. embarrassing
6. The doctor _____ something for my headache.
a. prescribed b. examined c. hurt
7. The _____ liked Andy's presentation. He's very good at public speaking.
a. ambulance b. survivor c. audience
8. Be careful! Don't _____ your drink on my new dress.
a. wave b. sip c. spill

of	in	into	out	up	down	of	up
----	----	------	-----	----	------	----	----

- ## GRAMMAR

A. Complete the text with the full infinitive, bare infinitive, or the -ing form of the verbs in brackets.

My friend Daniel was really tired of (1) _____ (work) in that Italian restaurant. He couldn't (2) _____ (get) along with the chef and his boss always made him (3) _____ (work) long hours. So, one day, he decided (4) _____ (start) his own business: a restaurant. At first, he wanted (5) _____ (work) together with his brother, but Adam wasn't interested in (6) _____ (try) anything like that. Daniel didn't have a lot of money, so he had to avoid (7) _____ (find) a very expensive place. After about two weeks, he found the perfect place. He called his friend Betty (8) _____ (ask) her to help him choose the right tables and chairs. He wanted everything to be perfect. Now, after almost a year, he is happy (9) _____ (say) that his business is very successful and he is thinking of (10) _____ (open) a second restaurant soon.

B. Circle the correct words.

1. The Tower of London is visited / visit by thousands of tourists every year.
2. Mary broke / was broken her leg in a skiing accident two months ago.
3. Alice was thrown / threw in the swimming pool by her brother.
4. The building was surrounded / surrounded by police cars.
5. David turned off / was turned off his computer before he left the office.
6. Students don't allow / aren't allowed to bring their mobile phones into the classroom.
7. Chocolate eats / is eaten all over the world.
8. The patient gave / was given a special treatment for his bad cold.
9. The e-mails sent / were sent by John's secretary.
10. The shopping centre destroyed / was destroyed by the fire last night.

READ

Read the text and write T for True, F for False or NM for Not Mentioned.

People don't normally think of rats as heroes. In fact, rats have a pretty bad name as they are usually found in dirty places. Here are two stories that will hopefully change people's minds about rats.

Birgit Steich of Stuttgart, Germany, and her family were asleep in their home one night when two burglars broke in. Gerd, the pet rat, who was hiding behind a bookcase jumped and landed with all four feet and sharp teeth on the face of one burglar. When Gerd was finished with the first burglar, he jumped on the other burglar and bit him hard on the leg. The family woke up from all the screaming and immediately called the police. When the police arrived, they discovered that these two burglars were wanted for many other burglaries.

In Devon, England, the Gumbley family was asleep in their home when Fido, an eight-month-old pet rat, smelt smoke in the middle of the night. Instead of running outside to safety,

