

Present Continuous

Complete the following by changing the words/adjectives into adverbs:

A bird of prey is described as a very large bird that _____ (usual) hunt small animals. The birds of prey have _____ (extreme) strong curved bills and very sharp claws. They are also known as raptors. These animals feed _____ (main) on vertebrate animals _____ (especial) mammals. These birds are _____ (primary) predatory but many include carrion and dead animals in their diet. Some feed only on dead animals. The common features to this group of animals include a very mighty hooked beak. The legs are short and _____ (extreme) powerful. All of the toes have very large, _____ (sharp) pointed and curved claws. These birds' vision is _____ (particular) acute, and the sense of smell seems to be better developed in carrion-eaters than the others.