

PRESENT SIMPLE & PRESENT CONTINUOUS.

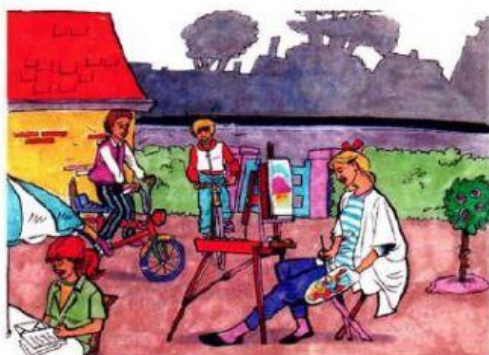

Let me tell you about Lorena and Robert. They(live) next door.

Right now, she(sit) on the train. She (listen) to her walkman and(read) a magazine at the same time.

In her free time she (swim). She only (watch) TV when there is sport on. Lorena is very kind so she (help) old people. She..... (clean) their houses and (cook) for them. At the moment she (learn) Italian because she(plan) to visit Italy this summer.

Robert (not have) a television because he (hate) it. He..... (say)that it's better listening to music or talking to friends.

He (play) the drum in a band. Tonight he(have) dinner with some friends at a restaurant.

Today(be) Sunday. It's warm but the sun (not/shine).

My sister, Emma (paint) a picture. She is a student of art and normally she (stay) in London where she (study). My brothers, John and Josh(ride) their bikes. They love bikes! John, who (wear) striped trousers,(have) short brown hair. Josh with short blonde hair (talk) to me right now, but I (not hear) him well.

On such lovely days I usually(sit) outside and(read) a book. But now I (not read), I (write) a letter to my aunt Emma. She is great and she (travel a lot because she is a photographer. She (travel) to Delhi in India now. Aunt Emma often(write) to me and (send) great photos from exotic places.

My mum sometimes(ask) me what I want to do in my life, but I simply(not know) yet.
