

Grammar: Simple Past Irregular verbs

Watch out! Some verbs are irregular. We can't just add -ed. We have to remember them!

Present	go	buy	have	see	eat	say	give	drink	come
Past	went	bought	had	saw	ate	said	gave	drank	came

A. Look at the Grammar Box

Transforming into negatives:

They went to the beach - They didn't go to the beach
 She ate some pizza - She didn't eat some pizza

- The verb stays the same
- We don't add Super S for she, he and it!

Transform into negatives!

They gave me a gift. They _____ me a gift
 .
 He drank a soda. He _____ a soda.

B. Complete these sentences with the POSITIVE past tense of the verbs:

Boy: I _____ (go) to the fair yesterday.

Girl: Was it fun?

Boy: Yes, it was. I _____ (have) a great time. There was a big ferris wheel!

Girl: Oh, the ferris wheel is my favourite!

Boy: It was great. I _____ (see) the whole town from the top!

C. Transform these sentences into NEGATIVE past tense:

1. Lily and Max went to the fair.

2. Max ate a pizza.

3. Lily and Max drank sodas.

4. Max saw the merry go round.

5. Lily bought a balloon

1. Lily and Max _____ to the fair.

2. Max _____ a pizza.

3. Lily and Max _____ sodas.

4. Max _____ the merry go round.

5. Lily _____ a balloon

D. What happened next? Complete with positive (eat → ate) or negative (not eat → didn't eat) past tense.

Note: look-looked / smile-smiled

Lily _____ (look) in her pocket.

She _____ (have) $1 left. She _____ (not have) 3$ for a pretty balloon.

Lily was sad. "Come on, Max. Let's go home", she _____ (say).

But Max _____ (not come). "Wait! I have my allowance!" said Max.

He _____ (give) $2 to her.

Lily _____ (smile). "Thank you, Max!" she _____ (say).

Lily _____ (buy) a balloon, and they _____ (go) home happy!

