

CONDITIONAL SENTENCES TYPE 2

TOO MUCH TOO YOUNG?

Seventeen year-old Gary won the competition, he has moved with his family to a large country house with a big swimming pool. He has left school to concentrate on his career in show business and has a personal tutor to help him with his exams. However, Gary is bored with his new life.

'I have got lots of money now, but I miss school,' he told us. 'It was exciting at first, but it isn't now. I don't often see my friends and I don't like all the travelling. I think maybe I'll go back to school.'

Many people dream of fame and fortune, but teen singer Gary Williams, who recently won the TV talent show The Wow Factor!, has found it a disappointing experience.

How would you feel if you were in Gary's situation? would you miss anything? we would love to hear your views.

"If I had his opportunities, I wouldn't look back. Chances like that don't come along very often. So if I were you, Gary, I would stay there! PS I voted for him. He's amazing." Jackson17, Cardiff

"I think I can understand. If you were rich and famous, like Gary, how would you know your real friends? Some people would only like you for your money. I would hate it." Dustyrose, Leeds

"I would probably feel the same if I was Gary. I think I would be quite lonely if I didn't see my school friends any more. I think I would miss them and regret moving away." May, London

"If I could change places with Gary, I would do it straightaway. He's incredibly lucky. It's the chance of a lifetime." Pinky, Swansea
