

Name _____ Date _____

Social Studies Quiz
Forms of Government

A. Choose the correct answer. Put a capital X in the box. (5 pts.)

1. No form of government is called an _____.
____ Dictatorship
____ Monarchy
____ Democracy
____ Anarchy
2. The Prime Minister normally heads _____.
____ Dictatorship
____ Democracy
____ Monarchy
____ Republic
3. The opposite of Democracy is _____.
____ Dictatorship
____ Republic
____ Monarchy
____ Anarchy
4. Only an emperor, king or queen can lead in a _____.
____ Republic
____ Democracy
____ Dictatorship
____ Monarchy
5. The _____ is usually leader in Republic.
____ Dictator
____ President
____ Prime Minister
____ Empress

B. Put a capital X in the box that applies to each. (10pts.)

1. Queen Elizabeth the Second is _____.

_____ Prime Minister

_____ Monarch

_____ Governor General

_____ Head of State for the Bahamas

2. In Dictatorship there is _____.

_____ No freedom of speech.

_____ Freedom of speech

_____ No free elections

_____ Dictator

3. In Democracy there is _____

_____ Dictator

_____ small clique that holds power

_____ freedom of speech

_____ Political parties

4. In anarchy, there is _____

_____ President

_____ no leader

_____ lots of rules

_____ chaos

5. A group of residents held a peaceful demonstration because they were upset with the way the Prime Minister and his government were running the country. They had recently voted in the election for this government. The cabinet ministers did not like this protest but the other political parties did.

This country has a _____ government.

_____ Republic _____ Dictatorship _____ Democracy _____ Monarchy

