

1. Insert the words from the box into the sentences. (Four words are extra!)

pitch	equipment	umpire	strapped	half-time	enthusiastic	nil
technical	enthusiasm	opposing	tournament	ceremony	race

- The figure-skating competition includes marks for _____ merit and artistic impression.
- Though paragliding is a risky kind of sports, my sister was always very _____ about trying it. When she was young, she even jumped from the tree with a rucksack _____ to her back. Luckily the father caught her in time.
- Though my brother was not a sporty person himself, he used to spend a lot of time at the football _____ watching the other boys playing.
- We played really well and the _____ team had no chances at all. The score finally was six - _____ even at _____.
- When the final _____ was over, there began the preparation for the awarding _____.

2. Match the compound adjectives and use them in the sentences below.

(One word in each group is extra!)

tight-	even-	grey-	easy-	minded	built	fashioned	tempered
well-	open-	old-	good-	working	looking	lasting	dressed
hard-	long-	every-		fitting	haired	going

- You should be more _____ and try new sports. Why don't you try zorbing?
- I made many _____ friends at secondary school.
- John is so _____. He stays at the office until 8:00 pm every evening.
- Cricket is a(n) _____ sport. In fact, the rules haven't changed since the 19th century.
- Catherine is very _____. She should be a model!
- Jeremy is _____ because he spends so much time at his local gym.
- Sylvia has gained some weight recently and her blue dress is rather _____ now.
- Our music teacher is quite a(n) _____ man. He is always calm.
- My uncle is a kind _____ man in his late sixties.
- She is such a(n) _____ person, who I am glad to be with any time.

3. Complete the conditional sentences:

- The team would have been happy if they _____ (beat) the opposing team.
- I think, if you _____ (bandage) your wrist, it would be much better tomorrow.
- Whatever you _____ (say) about her, I won't believe you.
- If the trains _____ (be) always on time, I'd never be late to work.
- I think I will have to leave, unless she _____ (ask) me to stay.
- But for the yesterday's traffic jams, we could _____ (be) at home much earlier.
- If she _____ (stop) lying to him, they wouldn't have parted.

4. Choose the correct word.

When he saw Oksana, he understood at once that she took _____ her mother: she had the same beautiful features, and both she and her sister were _____ good shape. Watching her took _____ all his time for the rest of the long break. He realized that he had immediately taken _____ her since the moment he saw her. When the teacher sent him to the White Hall to take part _____ the preparation of the concert, he couldn't imagine that Oksana would be _____ charge _____ it as a representative of the pupils' Presidential Council. The way she gave instructions to everyone was amazing. She could make everyone concentrate _____ the most important things. In such a situation there was nothing to worry _____.

He kept looking _____ Oksana, but when she looked back, he felt really hot and decided to take _____ his jacket. She smiled and turned away.