

You will hear an Interview with a travel writer who has visited people living on a remote island. For questions 1-7, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

Press PLAY again to listen for the second time!

- 1. Why did Terry want to visit Tristan da Cunha?
 1. Because it's the remotest inhabited island.
 2. Because it's very difficult to reach the island.
 3. Because he was curious about the people living there.
- 2. Why did the people of Tristan da Cunha return to the island after the earthquake?
 1. They had nowhere else to go.
 2. They preferred the island lifestyle.
 3. They were deported by the British government.
- 3. How did the islanders react when Terry arrived on the island?
 1. They were surprised but polite.
 2. They were shy and distant.
 3. They were friendly and welcoming.
- 4. What does Terry say about the economy of Tristan da Cunha?
 1. It produces everything the people need.
 2. Everyone has the same wealth.
 3. It relies on the local market only.
- 5. What impressed Terry most about living on Tristan da Cunha?
 1. the lack of crime
 2. the changing of jobs from day to day
 3. the caring attitude of the residents
- 6. Terry thinks the way of life on the island in the future
 1. will change due to new technology.
 2. will continue to stay the same.
 3. will be affected by increased tourism.
- 7. How has Terry's visit to the island changed him?
 1. He now appreciates the importance of a caring community.
 2. He is not interested in city living anymore.
 3. He wants to travel less often now.

After finishing the task, enjoy the view:

Winter in Kolomna