

Direction: Put the sentences in the right order to make a summary of the legend of Gelert.

- Gelert, the bravest of the dogs, stayed in the palace to guard the baby.
- Llywelyn, Prince of North Wales, lived in a palace with his wife, a baby son and his dogs.
- He got angry and killed Gelert with his dagger.
- While they were hunting, a huge wolf ran into the house and attacked the baby.
- The loyal dog fought the wolf and saved the baby.
- One day the Prince and his friends went hunting.
- When the prince came home, he didn't find his son in his bed.
- The next moment he heard the baby crying in another room.
- Llywelyn thought that Gelert ate his son.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.