

My parents do not spoil me. They are very strict with me. For example, they don't give me any pocket money.

5 you should work and earn some money by helping with the housework – wash the floors, clean the windows, put the dishes in the dishwasher, water the plants and take out the garbage. You should also look after the dog.”

10 learn that money doesn't grow on trees. All of us must work in order to have money. If money is important for you, find a job!"

My friends say that my parents are too strict.

Sometimes I'm angry with my parents, but what can I do? I don't want to help with the housework, so I must find a job – a job I'll enjoy doing.
