

IDU – Our Bahamian Way of Life, Compare Reptiles, Fish and Amphibians, Discovering my Identity and Community

Choose a, b, or c. Write the letter.

1. The island that has the largest population is _____.
a. Abaco b. Grand Bahama c. New Providence
2. A community of plants and animals including humans that live in a particular place is called _____.
a. citizen b. population c. place
3. The only island in The Bahamas that does not have an Administrator is _____.
a. New Providence b. Abaco c. Grand Bahama
4. Sponges were harvested from the _____ and sold outside The Bahamas.
a. swamp b. sea shore c. sea
5. Our way of life is also called _____.
a. culture b. lifestyle c. personal

Write true or false.

6. Reptiles, fish, and amphibians are cold-blooded animals.
7. Reptiles and amphibians live only on land. _____

8. The frog is not a reptile. _____
9. Fish and reptiles are vertebrates that have scales.
10. Amphibians do not breathe through gills. _____

Write the correct answer.

11. Write Mary or Martha beside each character's attitude.
a. She was calm. _____ b. She was angry. _____
12. What was the relationship between Mary and Martha?
They were _____.
13. Based on the story of Mary and Martha, it can be said that Mary loved to _____ and Martha loved to _____.
14. Other than being safe, what must a community be to protect the lives of people? It must be _____.
15. Education, sporting activities and worship are examples of what kind of practices? They are _____ practices.