

City vs Countryside

Exercise 1: write the comparative and the superlative form of the adjectives below. Use CAPITAL LETTERS. When two forms are possible, choose the "standard" one (e.g. for "clever" "more clever" is the standard form, while "cleverer" is an alternative.)

Boring	MORE BORING	THE MOST BORING
Busy	BUSIER	THE BUSIEST
Cheap	CHEAPER	THE CHEAPEST
Clean	CLEANER	THE CLEANEST
Dirty	DIRTIER	THE DIRTIEST
Exciting	MORE EXCITING	THE MOST EXCITING
Expensive	MORE EXPENSIVE	THE MOST EXPENSIVE
Fast-paced	MORE FAST-PACED	THE MOST FAST-PACED
Fresh	FRESHER	THE FRESHEST
Noisy	NOISIER	THE NOISIEST
Peaceful	MORE PEACEFUL	THE MOST PEACEFUL
Polluted	MORE POLLUTED	THE MOST POLLUTED
Quiet	MORE QUIET	THE MOST QUIET

Exercise 2: Complete the sentences using the comparative or superlative form of the adjective in brackets. Use CAPITAL LETTERS.

1) People think that the city is (dirty) than the countryside. However, in my experience that's not always true: I lived in Shangay for a whyle a few years ago and that's (clean) place I've ever seen.

2) I'd rather live in the countryside: it's (peaceful) and (quiet) than the city; furthermore, the city is genreally (polluted) and (expensive).

3) Lake Karachay, in Russia, is known to be (polluted) place not only in Russia but all over the world.

4) I think life in the countryside is (quiet) than in the city. The city is and life there is much (fast-paced).

5) I couldn't live in the countryside: the city is much (exciting).

Exercise 3: Compare the city and the countryside making a sentence of your own:
