

B 1 Complete the article with the Past Simple form of the verbs in brackets.

The Man Behind the World's First TV

John Logie Baird was born in Scotland in 1888. When he was a child, he was interested in science and technology. When he got older, he ¹..... (read) many books and magazines about technology. In 1924, he ²..... (start) to do his own experiments*. He ³..... (tell) people about his ideas for a moving picture on a screen. What ⁴..... they (think)? They thought he was crazy of course! But Baird ⁵..... (not listen) to them. He continued with his experiments. Baird ⁶..... (spend) a lot of his own money on the experiments but he ⁷..... (not have) enough money to finish. He ⁸..... (ask) some friends for help. In 1925, his experiments finally ⁹..... (succeed). Several years later, people ¹⁰..... (begin) watching TV at home.

*experiments / إختبارات / ניסויים

2 What can we learn from John Baird?

.....

FUTURE SIMPLE

A Complete the dialogue with the Future Simple form of the verbs in brackets.

Katie: Hi, Mary. Do you want to act in the school play this year?

Mary: I'm not an actor. I don't think the director ¹..... (choose) me.

Katie: You could work behind the scenes. You ²..... (not be) on stage, but you will still do interesting things.

Mary: Really? Like what?

Katie: You ³..... (help) the actors with their costumes, you ⁴..... (place) things they need on the stage and you ⁵..... (change) the music.

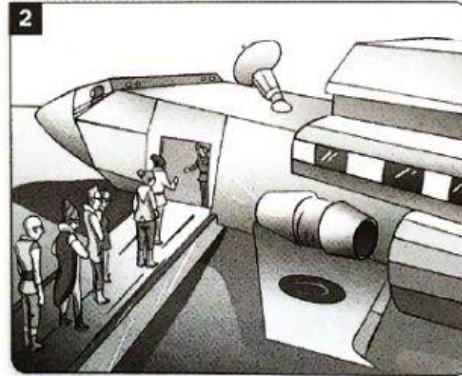

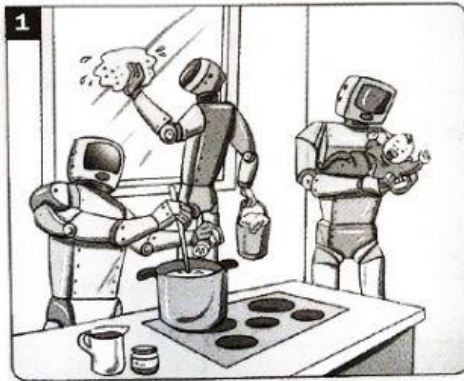

Mary: That sounds like fun. What ⁶..... you (do) in the play?

Katie: Well, I hope I'll be one of the actors. I love to act.

Mary: I hope you get what you want, Katie! But if not, ⁷..... you (work) behind the scenes with me?

Katie: Of course, I'll do anything to help with the play. I ⁸..... just (not sit) and watch you work!

B 1 Look at the pictures below and describe what will happen in the future. Write two sentences for each picture, one positive and one negative.

1.
.....

2.
.....

2 Write your own ideas about what will happen in the future.

.....
.....