

collocations

MIND AND THOUGHT

Match the collocations with their definitions:

make up one's mind	think of sth suddenly, but not for long or seriously	have a thought	doubt your decision
cross one's mind	change a decision or opinion	have second thoughts	have an idea
change one's mind	make a decision	give sth thought	think carefully about sth

Fill in the gaps, using the correct form of the verbs in the box:

- I haven't _____ up my mind where to travel yet. Can you help me decide where to go?
- Don't give up this school project! You should _____ it more thought.
- I've just _____ a thought! Why don't you come round at 8 and we watch that new TV series together?
- To be honest, it never _____ my mind that you can be offended by my joke. I'm so sorry!

change	give	have
cross	have	make

- I _____ second thoughts about buying the new iPad when I knew the price.
- You can argue till you're blue in the face, but you won't _____ my mind.

Choose the correct verb:

- I _____ up my mind to apply for a scholarship.
- It _____ my mind that it was a great opportunity to study abroad.
- I _____ some thought to buying a motorbike. My mom convinced me it was too dangerous.
- You are not _____ second thoughts about resitting this exam, are you?
- I agreed to go to the party, but then I _____ my mind and went to the cinema to see the new Marvel film.
- I've just _____ a thought that it might be quicker to get there by bus.