

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: ____

Federalism

1. The central government of the United States is called the:
2. The division of power between a central government and state governments is called:
3. The Law System in United States establishes that:
4. Powers of Congress that are not stated in the Constitution are:
5. A group of individuals united together for a purpose is considered:
6. The second and final attempt to write a document that would govern the United States is considered:
7. The first document that explained how the original 13 states would be governed was:
8. Under the Articles of Confederation the United States did not have one of these:

9. The document that replaced the Articles of Confederation:

10. The branch of government that carries out laws is:

11. The branch of government that makes laws is:

12. The branch of government that interprets laws is: