

THE FOOD BLUES

by The Corries

(That sends me back)

I was sitting in a motorway restaurant
And a waiter came up and said: "What do you want?"
I looked at the menu, it looked so nice
Till he said: "Let me give you some advice."

"1 _____ and 2 _____ they got too much starch,
3 _____ and gravy are bad for your heart,
There's hormones in 4 _____ and 5 _____ and veal,
Ravioli is a dead man's meal.

6 _____'s got preservatives, nitrate's in 7 _____,
Artificial colouring's in jellies and 8 _____.
Stay away from 9 _____, run away from 10 _____
Pepperoni 11 _____ is a sure way to die.

12 _____ rots your teeth and makes you put on weight.

13 _____ (have) got cyclamates.

14 _____ (have) got cholesterol, there's fat in 15 _____

16 _____ ruins your kidneys so does 17 _____

18 _____'s got mercury, red meat is poison.

19 _____'s going to send your blood pressure rising.

20 _____ and salami (have) got deadly red dyes.

21 _____ and 22 _____ are sprayed with pesticides."

I said: "What can I eat that's going to make me last?"
He said: "A small drink of 23 _____ in a tiny wee glass."
Then he stopped and he thought for a minute.
"Never mind the 24 _____, there's carcinogenics in it."

I got up from the table. Walked out into the street
Realising there was nothing I could eat.
Ain't eaten for a month but I'm feeling fine.
'Cause he did not mention 25 _____, whiskey and red, red wine.
