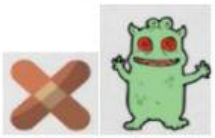
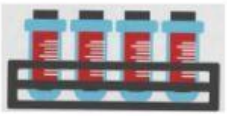
Medical Vocabulary

Watch the video and complete the crossword.

Down

1. a supply for use by person who can't walk.
2. a strip of woven material used to bind up a wound or to protect an injured part of the body.
3. symptom, having a sensation of things going round and round.
8. supply worn to protect the hands while treating an injured or sick person.





Across

4. illness, an injury to the ligaments around a joint.
5. a test of a sample of blood.
6. a test performed by an ophthalmologist.
7. a supply to assist a person in walking. You usually need two.
9. injure by striking or pressing causing a discolored spot to develop.
10. illness in which the long-term force of the blood against your artery walls is high enough that it may eventually cause health problems.
11. medical test to diagnose a broken bone.
12. a framework of a piece of canvas and two long poles on the side, used to carry a sick or dead person.