

VERB TENSES

Fill in each blank of the following dialogue with the simple present, present continuous, future, simple past, past continuous, present perfect, or present perfect continuous of the verb in parentheses ().

Where did you go last week?

I _____ (go) to the mechanic.

What were you doing while you were waiting for the mechanic?

I _____ (talk) with my boss on the phone until the mechanic _____ (come).

What did he tell you?

In his office he told me "I'm sorry but you _____ (need) to buy a new transmission."

How did you feel?

I _____ (leave) his office and _____ (go) home. I _____ (feel) a little bit worried.

Have you found a transmission yet?

I _____ (look) in the phone directory and _____ (call) every transmission shop, but I _____ (not/ find) a transmission yet.

What are you going to do?

After this I _____ (maintain) my car better. I _____ (know) that it _____ (help) me save money so that this never happens again.