

Classification and Categorization

Directions: Use the chart below and create three categories for things found in the kitchen. Classify at least five items for each category by putting them in the correct category.