

Ecuador

Select the correct answer

The official name of our country is the . It is the second country in America, with 256,370 square kilometers. Due to its position on the equator, our country has incredible biodiversity and landscapes. The official language is .

Quichua is spoken by many nationalities. About ten other native languages are also official in their communities. According to the law, all indigenous languages in Ecuador must be and preserved.

Ecuador uses the as its currency. The capital city is .